THE KING CHARLES III ENGLAND COAST PATH

The King Charles III England Coast Path is a new walking route following the entire English coast – over 2800 miles! For the first time people will have the right of access to all our open coast including any land forming part of the Coastal Margin. Gradually being opened section by section it will be, when complete, the longest coastal path in the world. Our speaker from Natural England, the ecologist JENNY BOWEN, is Project Lead for the East Sussex and Kent sections. She has worked for over 20 years on increasing access to the countryside, helping to introduce the 'Right to Roam' under the Countryside and Rights of Way (CROW) Act.
